The Court Made the Following :

THE HON'BLE SRI JUSTICE A.GOPAL REDDY

WRIT PETITION NO : 29 of 1999 & 3388 of 1999

COMMON ORDER:

Cancellation of admissions of the petitioners to 16th Batch of Telugu Pandit Training course in 2nd respondent college by proceedings dated 25-11-1998 and 11-12-1998 respectively is the subject matter of challenge in the writ petition.

The interim direction granted on 15-2-1999 and 22-2-1999 respectively by this Court permitting the petitioners to complete their practical training courses as Telugu Pandits in the second respondent college commencing from 7-1-1999 and permit them to appear for the examination thereafter pending disposal of the writ petition has been vacated by the reasoned orders dated 5-3-1999 and 8-4-1999 respectively observing that some of the students also gave written explanation stating that they have submitted forged memorandum of marks before the committee constituted to verify the memorandum of marks for obtaining admission into Telugu Pandit Training courses. The said committee has submitted its report on 15-10-1998 and another report on 17-10-1998 stating that nearly 36 candidates have submitted fake certificates and memorandum of marks. Since the admissions were already cancelled and the interim direction to continue them has already been vacated, no further cause survives in this matter.

Accordingly, the writ petition Nos.29 of 1999 and 3388 of 1999 are dismissed. No costs.
